

3-HOUR PRIVATE TOUR

BOTANIC GARDENS WALKING TOUR

Phong Nha Botanic Gardens is a highly recommended stop within the National Park, providing guests with a taste of rich primary forest and the picture-perfect 30m Thac Gio Waterfall.

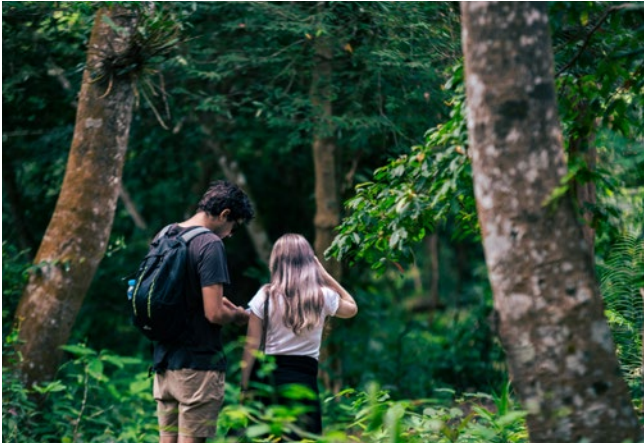

This 3-hour walking tour will see guests following a well marked 2.5 km trail through the gardens with their expert local guide. There is also an option for a shorter route depending on the guests fitness levels.

The tropical forest is beautiful, and different species of plants are marked with signs, but your tour guide will provide a detailed account of everything that guest sees on their journey. There are plenty of orchids and birds and you'll be impressed by the care taken to maintain the gardens.

In the summer months, it can be quite a busy spot with locals, and it is recommended to start this tour early in the morning to avoid the crowds, however it is flexible to start at a later time if guests prefer. Light refreshments provided but no lunch included on this tour as standard.
